DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 39, 40, 42-51, and 53-57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by DE-10050013 (DE'013).

Re: claims 39, 40, 42-51, and 53-57. DE'013 shows in figures 4a-c a brake pad assembly comprising a brake pad 2 and a guide spring 9 for engagement with the brake pad, the brake pad including a main portion 13 and a lateral guiding portion 8 extending from the main portion, the lateral guiding portion including a stop surface and a radial extension, the guide spring comprising an end portion for engagement with the stop surface, the guide spring further comprising a guiding channel 20 having a depth for receiving the radial extension.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3683

4. Claims 41 and 52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DE'013.

In In re Dailey, 357 F.2d 669, 149 USPQ 47 (CCPA 1966) the court held that the configuration of a claimed object was a matter of choice which a person of ordinary skill in the art would have found obvious absent persuasive evidence that the particular configuration was significant. Accordingly, It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the shape of the hinge portion to have been V-shaped, in light of the case law, depending on the real estate requirements within the brake pad assembly.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US Patent 4429769 to Oshima et al. teach the use of a guide spring with an end portion on one side of a bridge of the spring.

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
